Thank you so much for the robust conversation about resilience hubs last night. I wanted to apologize for not mentioning that Ava Community Energy is a sponsor of our upcoming resilience hub workshop series. We are very thankful to have Ava Community Energy as a sponsor and look forward to the participation of staff members.

If there is any way to add this sponsorship acknowledgment and gratitude to the meeting notes, that would be much appreciated.

I look forward to more conversations about this important topic and again my apologies.
best,
Susan Silber
