

Q & A: Induction Cooking Education & Awareness Grant

Q: What if an organization does not have 3-years worth of audited financial statements?

A: Please submit the audited financials you do have.

EBCE will also accept unaudited financial statements, if audited do not exist.

If the organization was under a fiscal sponsor, see below.

Q: What information is necessary if an organization is operating under a fiscal sponsor?

A: If the organization was under a fiscal sponsor, please submit the fiscal sponsorship agreement or verification letter

Q: Will EBCE provide a venue or demonstration kitchen for the implementer to use for events?

A: No, all event locations will take place outside of EBCE

Q: Can implementer work with EBCE to arrange induction equipment storage?

A: EBCE has limited office storage space and does not plan to provide storage. Storage space is an acceptable expense under the terms of the grant.

Q: What will the relationship be between the implementer and EBCE's marketing team?

Will implementers be expected to use EBCE branding, and will branding guides be provided?

Can EBCE's marketing and outreach team assist in customer outreach?

A: Yes, implementers will be expected to use EBCE branding and branding guidelines will be provided. EBCE can provide marketing and outreach for customers. Note that EBCE will be completing a rebranding to Ava Community Energy in Fall-Winter 2023, so grantee will be provided with Ava Community Energy brand guidelines

Q: Will EBCE be printing marketing materials for these events or is that anticipated to be covered in the $300,000 budget?

A: All EBCE-branded printed marketing materials will be provided by EBCE and do not need to be paid for with grant funds.

Q: Is EBCE open to a higher administrative expense in Y1 and lower administrative costs Y2/Y3 to accommodate a program ramp-up period?

A: Yes, once an organization is selected for the grant, EBCE can work with the organization when developing the grant agreement to structure a payment timeline that is best tailored to the organization and grant objectives and goals.
