

Fiscal Year 2026-2027 Draft Budget

Howard Chang, CEO | June 3, 2026

Introduction

- Every year in June, Ava Board of Directors (the “Board”) approves the following fiscal year’s budget
- This draft budget was reviewed by an ad hoc group of the Ex Comm on 5/6, full board on 5/20, and FAP on 5/27 with approval scheduled for the meeting on June 17th.
- The Budget covers the overall categories of the General Operating Fund:
 - Revenues from Operations
 - Energy Operating Expenses (typically 90%+ of total expenses)
 - Services to Facilitate Energy Operations
 - Operational Overhead to Energy Operations
 - Non-Operating Revenues
 - Non-Operating Expenses, including a Capital Transfer to the Local Development Fund
- PG&E issued an updated ERRA filing on May 15 that materially altered the forecast in this presentation and was updated on 5/20, after the first review by ExComm
 - Staff may consider delaying the first review of the budget draft to post May ERRA filing in future years

Current Fiscal Year 2025-2026 Performance

- Details on “Actuals” are settlements through March and updated projections through June.
- Revenue is expected to settle above budget due to Board action on value proposition in December.
 - Other Operating Revenue is primarily fees and damages to Ava on energy contracts
- Cost of energy is coming in below expectations as market prices softened and higher than expected large hydro generation
- Total overhead is currently estimated at $6.5MM below budget due to opex reductions
- Non-operating activity is higher than expected as interest rates remain higher-for-longer and with the reduction of Local Development contributions
 - Borrowing interest expenses have been moved to General & Administrative overhead due to accounting treatment changes
- Overall Net Revenues are expected to come in at $83MM above estimates without using $35MM budgeted GASB 62 funds.

Fiscal Year 2026-2027 Draft Budget

Draft Budget Fiscal Year 2026-2027

- Revenues: Energy prices continue to soften, and with the resolution of Track 1 Ava’s effective PCIA is lowering while PG&E’s rates are increasing due to persistent costs in their portfolio
- Cost of Energy: Lower energy prices reduce open position costs
- Overhead: Increase in G&A is predominantly due to increased rent, a change in accounting treatment of credit facility fees, and increasing software costs
- Non-Operating Activity: Higher interest income and lower borrowing interest due to a change in accounting treatment of credit facility. No incremental contributions to Local Development Funding in fiscal year 2026-2 with current fund balance at $83.6MM

Draft Budget: Forecast Uncertainty

- May 15, 2026 ERRA filing provided a year-to-date update on a subset of the underlying assumptions that generate the PCIA and rates, but did not provide updated MPBs. Assumptions require additional diligence and validation. This is separate from potential changes that may come from the General Rate Case (GRC)
- PCIA Tracks 2 and 3 may have material impacts on PCIA and rate setting methodologies. Track 3 scope and timing presents the greatest uncertainty. 3 pre-scoping workshops have been scheduled for June.
- Load forecast uncertainty:
 - Weather conditions present the greatest impact on actualized load volume and shape
 - With the addition of SJC, estimates will become more accurate as Ava receives more data beyond initial enrollment
 - Longer-term: data center and electrification presents significant uncertainty as well
- New power generation project online dates may be delayed or moved forward impacting power portfolio expenses
- Energy prices are highly volatile and currently softening in response to a mild winter, accelerated melting snowpack, and new energy capacity coming online.
 - While forecasted summer prices are softening, actuals may vary greatly based on temperatures and demand
- Opaque portfolios with the IOU could lead to materially different MPBs in the October ERRA filing
- Interest rates and macroeconomic environment may change

May ERRA Addendum Filings

- The May 15 ERRA filing consists of the filing documents and the series of datasets called the “Working Papers”
 - The filing and working papers can be accessed through the PG&E Azure website here:
<https://pgera.azurewebsites.net/Regulation/search>
 - Select the “ERRA 2027 PGE – Forecase [A.25-05-007]” case from the dropdown menu and click search to see all documents available for download
- Staff is still processing the working papers with consultants to get better color on the details
- What is known:
 - 2025 RA PCIA reform is in place at a steady state for 2027
 - Load appears to be materially lower for PG&E due to milder than expected weather to date and community load departure
 - PG&E's revenue requirements remain stable despite the reduction in load, increasing generation rates
- What is not known from the ERRA:
 - Direction on MPB settlement for all attributes
 - A significant portion of the filing is redacted due to market sensitive confidential information and our 3rd party consultant has access to this information, which may be shared on a very limited basis
 - There were some known errors/inconsistencies that are in the process of being validated and reconciled

The screenshot shows the search interface on the PG&E Azure website. The URL is pgera.azurewebsites.net/Regulation/search. The page features a blue header with the PG&E logo and navigation links: For My Home, About, Contact Us, Safety, English, Go, and Log In. Below the header is a navigation bar with tabs for Company Info, Newsroom, Environment, Community, and Careers. The main content area is titled "Search for Public Case Documents" and contains a search form. The form includes a dropdown menu for "Case" with the selected option "ERRA 2027 PGE - Forecase [A.25-05-007]". Other fields include "Document Type" (set to "All"), "Keyword" (with a note: "When using the 'Keyword' search, confidential documents will not be included in your search results."), "Description/Title Contains", "Party" (set to "All"), "Date(s) from" and "to" (both set to "MM/DD/YY" with a note: "(default is all dates)"), "Sort Order" (set to "File Name"), and "Records Per Page" (set to "100"). There are "Search" and "Clear" buttons at the bottom of the form. Below the form, there is a link: "If you need an ADA reasonable modification to view a document, please reach out to ADA_Support@pge.com". At the bottom of the page, there are links for "For My Home", "For My Business", "Doing Business with PG&E", "About PG&E", "Privacy", and "Accessibility". A footer note states: "PG&E refers to Pacific Gas and Electric Company, a subsidiary of PG&E Corporation. © 2014 Pacific Gas and Electric Company. PCIA & Operating Headroom

- Ava's generation rates to customers are indexed to PG&E's generation rate
- A portion of the generation cost is a charge from PG&E for the Power Charge Indifference Adjustment (PCIA)
 - The PCIA is how PG&E recovers "stranded costs or credits" for legacy generation resources

- PCIA rates are based on an annual mark-to-market
 - For Energy, Resource Adequacy (RA), and Renewable Portfolio Standard (RPS) resources, the mark-to-market is against "Market Price Benchmarks" (MPBs)
 - Forecasts for MPBs are presented by the Investor-Owned Utilities (IOUs) in May and then updated in October to establish the following year's rates
 - PCIA and rates are "trued up" from forecast to actual, and any over-collection or under-collection is recovered in rates the following year.
 - Higher MPBs --> higher rates and lower PCIA = more operating headroom for Ava
 - Lower MPBs --> lower rates and higher PCIA = less operating headroom for Ava

PCIA Proceeding & Risk Elements

The CPUC has an ongoing proceeding regarding the PCIA, divided into "Tracks".

○ Track 1

- CalCCA has appealed CPUC Track 1 decision; appeal is pending
- Revised the MPB for RA retroactive through 2025
- Major driver for the much higher PCIA most Ava customers see in 2026 versus 2025

○ Track 2

- Proceeding is ongoing; decision expected in time for inclusion in 2027 rates
- The CPUC is reviewing the methodology for valuing RECs that PG&E "banked" prior to 2019 but did not actually use for compliance purposes until 2025. An interim methodology values those RECs at $0. This increases the PCIA for most Ava customers versus what the PCIA would be if those RECs were valued at the current market price for RECs
- Outcome indeterminate; CalCCA proposal would use current market prices for REC value, and lower the PCIA for most Ava customers versus status quo; PG&E proposal would make the status quo interim methodology permanent

○ Track 3

- Scope and timing undetermined
 - CCAs propose to address reviewing the Track One revisions to MPBs; aligning the RA MPB with the RA Slice of Day framework; reventinging of PCIA resources; PCIA GHG-free methodology; and potentially other structural changes to the PCIA
 - IOUs propose to prioritize changes to RPS MPBs ahead of any other issues, with changes to the brown power MPB next
- Outcome indeterminate; CCA approach would likely reduce PCIA for most Ava customers if adopted while the IOU approach would likely raise the PCIA for most Ava customers if adopted

Electricity Product Load & Rates

- Renewable 100:
 - Originally set at $0.01/kWh above PG&E and has migrated down as Ava financials improved
 - Currently priced at $0.0175/kWh above PG&E rates
- Bright Choice:
 - Originally set at 1.5% discount to PG&E, reduced to a 1% discount in 2021, increased to a 3% discount in 2022, increased to 5% discount to PG&E rates in 2023. Latest adjustment was to 0.5% discount to PG&E in January of 2026
- The percent load of Bright Choice customers is estimated at ~66% for FY 2027

- Growth in Bright Choice in FY 2026 is due to unincorporated SJC
- Growth in Renewable 100 in FY 2027 is due to Fremont opt up
- Annual load and load shape can vary materially year to year and between budget to actuals due to weather, individual customer usage, and expansion to new territories

Brown Power Energy Price Volatility

- Brown power prices are set by a number of factors impacting supply and demand, such as weather, natural gas prices, system capacity, transmission congestion, etc.
- Volatility is high due to these uncertain and changing factors year to year
- Customer rates (generation and PCIA) are set based on a forecast while also incorporating a true up of the prior year's forecasted market prices with actualized prices
- 2026 rates were set by and 2026 forecasted prices and truing up 2025 actualized prices. 2027 rates will be set by 2027 forecasted prices and truing up 2026 actualized prices.

Market Price Benchmark Trends 2020-2027

- Forecast MPBs used to develop PCIA and generation rates are calculated in Sept each year:
 - Energy: Avg forward price during Sept for delivery the following year
 - REC: Avg executed contract price in the past 15 months for delivery in following year
 - RA: Avg executed contract price in the past 3 years for delivery the following year
- Forecasted vs. Final MPBs vary significantly, reflecting year to year market volatility
- RA MPB in 2025 reflects regulatory changes, no future PCIA reform is assumed in forecasts
- "Final" numbers in 2026 reflect actuals through March and updated forecast as of April

Historical Generation Rates & PCIA

- Rates increased and PCIA decreased from 2022 to 2025, driven by forecasted increases in energy market prices
- Since 2025 energy costs have softened in addition to substantive PCIA reform, setting PCIA higher and rates lower in 2026
- Lower prices are expected to continue through 2026 and we are forecasting a modest increase to generation rates and a lower PCIA in 2027, though rates remain stable
 - Between calendar year 2025 and 2026, customer rates dropped 20%, and between 2026 and 2027 Ava is estimating rates will increase 2.2% (inclusive of PCIA)
 - Between fiscal year 2025 and 2026, customer rates dropped 2%, and between 2026 and 2027, rates are expected to drop another 12%

Draft Budget: Revenues

Total Operating Revenue	895,805,000	883,556,000	784,400,000	(111,405,000)	-12.4%

- Despite higher load, revenue from electricity sales is expected to decrease for the fiscal year with Ava's generation rates declining ~23%
- Value proposition remains unchanged at 0.5% discount to PG&E for Bright Choice and a $0.0175 premium on Renewable 100 products
- Estimated bad debt slightly increased from 1.0% to 1.25% of billings based on rising trends and getting ahead of possible inflation increases due to oil market volatility
- Recognition of GASB 62 deferred revenue is not from the Rate Stabilization Fund but is half of the amount deferred from resolution R-2024-26, which allocated $10,504,837 to local, incremental generation and capacity from the 2023 RFO for projects starting in 2027

Draft Budget: Base Case Revenue Assumptions

Year	Energy		RPS		RA
	Brown Power		RPS Adder		All RA ($/kW-mo)
	Forecast	Final	Forecast	Final	Forecast	Final
2026	$ 51.13	$ 34.09	$ 62.45	$ 40.00	$ 11.53	$ 10.00
2027	$ 42.66	$ 42.66	$ 36.92	$ 36.92	$ 10.00	$ 10.00

- Base Case Assumptions have MPB's for calendar year 2026 down to align with market actuals and forwards year to date
- Forward looking prices in cost of energy reflect market price assumptions
- In addition to MPB assumptions, revenue requirement inputs directly from PG&E are critical in determining generation rates
 - In May ERRA filing, PG&E's revenue requirement stayed relatively flat despite declining load in 2027, which needs further diligence

FY 2026-2027 Scenarios & Sensitivities

Ava looked at possible alternative MPB/revenue scenarios —High-End and Low-End

- High-end: calendar year 2026 prices end up as current MPB forecasts from May ERRA filings, which are unchanged from the October ERRA filing
- Low-end: calendar year 2026 prices are one standard deviation down from current forward averages for brown power and Ava’s base case RPS and RA estimates
- There is upward pressure on rates based on PG&E's request for increase in revenue requirement in their GRC filing that is anticipated, but unlikely to be implemented in the 2026-27 fiscal year

- Energy Operations which includes all energy, energy attributes, ancillary related costs and required management services such as scheduling, data management, and customer billing
 - This category comprises 93.5% of Ava’s total operating expenses
- Overhead Operations which includes all personnel and staffing needs as well as work function cost centers required to manage the organization at large, and is about 6.5% of total operating expenses
- Non-Operating Expenses which are all capital and capital transfer related costs, including Local Development Fund contributions. This category is presented and discussed in a later slide

Energy Costs

- Costs are generally derived from a blend of contracted and open position for all energy attributes
 - Currently, renewables, carbon free, and RA are fully procured
 - Open prices are non-stressed, mean forecasted
 - Material increase in PPAs due to reduced revenue expectations from lower market prices

- Periodically, the Board has approved adjusting targets to fit Ava’s financial position, typically raising targets
- In December 2025, the Board approved a compliance period approach across multiple years instead of single year targets specifically
